PITCHED BATTLE TO SAVE CHILD.

Two are Dead and Others Hurt Following Brother's Attempted Rescue

AT YORK STATE ROAD HOUSE

Ed. Brewer Started the Trouble, Claiming Little Girl Was Held Prisoner, and Before He Finished Sheriff and Deputies Were Mixed Up.

United Press Telegram.

MOUNT KISCO, N. Y., Nov. 18.—An attempt to rescue a young girl, who it is alleged was held prisoner in Dan Merri's Road House between here and Almond, today resulted in a pitched battle between two men who were fought with revolvers and rifles. When it was over two men were dead and several others wounded. Wednesday night 124 lawless of Chappaqua came to the Road House and working up to the bar paid to the proprietor.

"You have my little sister prisoner here. You had her snatched from home and are keeping her a prisoner. I want to see her right here and now."

Two of the habitues of the place threw Brewer out. He was warned that he would be beaten up if he ever returned. Late last night there was a knock on the door and Brewer's voice was heard:

"Send out my sister" or there will be something started."

This was the signal for the fight to commence and it lasted until one who of the building was killed. Finally Sheriff Scherib with half a dozen deputies arrived. As the automobiles bearing them were started the attacking party fled and immediately the back door of the tavern opened and men and women inmates scattered into the woods.

The Sheriff found one man dead in the front yard and another just inside the front door who was identified as James McManis, a cousin of the proprietor. The other was not recognized. The Sheriff arrested ten men who had escaped from the Road House. All were taken to White Plains and jailed.

Shied Shoe Box at the Conductor

A box of shoes carelessly thrown by Adam Rice at the conductor of a South Connellville car on November 17th, will result in his arrest. Information having been made yesterday afternoon before Justice of the Peace W. P. Clark. The prosecutor is the assistant claim agent of the West Penn.

It is alleged that Rice acted in a disorderly manner on the morning of the 14th and Conductor James Conway was obliged to put him off. "The shoe box valued Rice's opinion of the crew in charge of the car when it pulled through the air in the direction of Conway but missed its mark. Disobedient conduct is the charge to which the will answer.

FARMERS' INSTITUTES

Dates and Speakers of the series arranged for Fayette County.

The farmers of Fayette county have arranged for a series of Farmers' Institutes, the first of which will be held on Wednesday, December 2 and 3 at Pleasanton, the second Monday and Tuesday, December 5 and 6 at Farmington and the third Wednesday and Thursday, December 7 and 8 at Morris Cross Roads.

A number of instructors from other parts of the State will be present to join with the farmers of this locality in the discussion of subjects relative to agriculture. These meetings are free and open to all, and there is no doubt but what the farmers of the county will avail themselves of the advantages to be gained by attending the institutes.

The speakers to be present are R. P. Keeler of Chambers, Clarified county; Prof. P. Pillsbury of State College, Centre county; Prof. R. L. Miller, State College, Centre county; Prof. W. M. C. Drake, Valmont, Lawrence county; M. N. Clark, Clarified, Westmoreland county; W. H. Hill, Farmington, Pa.; E. L. Dorsett, instructor of State College, Mansfield, Pa.

REVOLT IN PUEBLO.

Secretary Minister Writes For Confirmation of the Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(Special.)—President Taft today received a letter from the United States today which was a confirmation of the reported revolutionary outbreak at Pueblo, Mexico.

He reiterated his faith in the ability of President Diaz to stamp out the revolt.

Baxter on Sick List. Thomas W. Baxter, proprietor of the Riverside hotel on Water street, was able to sit up yesterday for a short time after a two weeks' illness resulting from a severe cold. Inflammation of the stomach developed and he was forced to take to his bed.

Leaves Hospital. Mrs. John Layton, who had an eye removed at the Cottage Hospital a few weeks ago, left the institution this morning.

CHANGE OF GRADE

Advocated by J. D. Mulligan for North Prospect Street

J. D. Mulligan is advocating a change of grade for North Prospect street from Apple to a point near Fayette street. The change is being made with the approval of Borough Engineer J. L. Fritsch and will probably be put up to Council for action. Mr. Mulligan believes that, at the expense of having a dead wall at the head of East Peach street, it would be possible to have an easy grade on Prospect street that could be used by teams and heavy vehicles.

Under the proposition suggested by Mulligan, the street would be from 12 feet above the grade of Peach street to 12 feet above the grade of Peach street that is open to vehicle traffic. Prospect street would come down to the present grade near Fayette street.

CENTRAL AGENCY FOR COKE MEN.

A Meeting Will Be Held in Pittsburgh Next Week

TO DISCUSS THE PLANS

Rumor in Pittsburgh Today of Mergers of Independent Coke Makers Group Out of Agitation For Organization of a Central Agency.

United Press Telegram.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 18.—A merger of interests to benefit independent coke operators of the big Connellville district is now under way according to reports in Pittsburgh. It is the intention to hold a meeting in Pittsburgh next week. Its completion will come within a few weeks, it is predicted, and will result in the formation of practically the entire output of market coke in Connellville and adjoining territory, falling into the hands of a large local interest.

A rise in the price of coke will follow, it is said.

"This is not a merger in the sense of a combination of the operators after the form of a trust," explained a leading independent coke operator, when shown this program. "It is the formation of a central selling agency for the primary purpose of pooling the coke output in Pittsburgh and effecting a reduction of cost through the elimination of the numerous coke brokers whose scalping this week's Courier has been after for the past year. A leading coke interest whose constitutional policy has been to oppose a central agency which will be thought to be acceptable, and which will insure the pooling of practically all the independent output of the Connellville and Lower Connellville regions.

The meeting of the operators will be held in Pittsburgh on Friday, when some definite plan will probably be adopted. The establishment of a central sales agency in Pittsburgh will probably be an accomplished fact before the close of the current year. The State Department at Harrisburg advised together and acting as a whole, check on the making of foolish contracts for 1911."

CITY CHARTER PAPERS

Will All Be Forwarded to Harrisburg Within a Few Days.

Borough Engineer J. L. Fritsch stated today that within one or two days all the necessary papers will be forwarded to Harrisburg in connection with the application for a third class city charter. While the Borough Engineer complied with all the requirements of the Act of Assembly, the State Department at Harrisburg advised that additional data be furnished.

These papers, including a plot of the town now being made by Borough Engineer J. L. Fritsch, will be ready within a day or two. It is expected the charter will arrive soon after they are received. It is not yet known whether the charter will be granted until the first Monday in December, 1911.

The Colonel will return to New York tomorrow night and will then take a train for Oyster Bay.

ROOSEVELT VISITING

Around Among Friends in Washington, But Still Silent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Colonel Roosevelt devoted today to seeing many of his oldest and most intimate friends who called upon him at the home of his son-in-law, Representative Longworth.

It was the first glimpse any had of him since his return from Africa. Arrangements were also made for a visit to the Smithsonian institute where the Roosevelt expedition collection is displayed.

The Colonel will return to New York tomorrow night and will then take a train for Oyster Bay.

AMSTERDAM REUNION. Missions from Here Were Present at His Pittsburgh Affairs.

A number of Missions from here attended the reunion of the members of the class of 1880 at the Hotel Hamilton last evening. Among them were: J. W. Hurlinger, T. H. Hooper, S. Zimmerman, A. B. Kirtz, R. J. Welch, J. B. Everett, S. C. Lynn, E. H. Kouser and H. N. Osborne.

CARS WILL RUN TO JUNIATA SOON.

Chief Engineer J. L. Fritsch Sets December 15 as Date for Starting.

START WORK TOWARDS BITNER

Reagan and Lynch Put Up Their Stables and Start Two Gangs at Work on Extension—Contractor O'Connor Finished Job Today.

United Press Telegram.

Cars will be running to Juniata on December 15 unless something unexpected happens to prevent. That was the statement today of Chief Engineer J. L. Fritsch of the West Penn Railway Company. There remains about 1,000 feet of track to be laid. Already rails have been laid a distance of 4,500 feet, at each end of the line, and only a short connecting track is to be constructed. Work on this will be started immediately as Contractor Bernard O'Connor finished his last work on the contract at noon today.

It will be early Spring before the street car line will reach Bitner. Contractors Reagan and Lynch have started work. Their gang has been about the grading. Scoop shovels are being used on a portion of the contract. A fact on a stretch of grading is completed the trucks will be laid, the rail layers keeping close on the heels of the graders at all times.

Although cars being made for and whether interfering with the Juniata-Bitner extension and it is not expected that traffic on this line can begin before May 1 and it may be a few weeks beyond that time. This contract is entirely at the mercy of weather conditions.

With the completion of the line to Bitner, more than half the distance to Juniata will have been covered. The proposed new line will be approximately 14 miles long. To Bitner in 7 1/2 miles. When completed there will be barely a half mile difference between the length of the two trunk lines between Connellville and Uniontown. The Juniata line will be completed in time for the residents along it to go their Christmas shopping to Connellville and it is expected that Juniata will be able to get with the merchants here as a consequence.

WEST PENN RAILWAYS

Interested in the Incorporation of South Connellville.

Officials of the West Penn are somewhat interested in the incorporation of South Connellville as a borough. Although the plan is not yet definite, it is expected that the borough will be incorporated in time for the residents along it to go their Christmas shopping to Connellville and it is expected that Juniata will be able to get with the merchants here as a consequence.

The only expense apt to be incurred will be the paying of Pittsburgh street car rates. CONNELLVILLE TO GET FIRST CHANCE

If McKeesport O. & P. Franchise Is Sold Team May Come Here.

A. A. STRAUB WARMS WIRES

Received Promise This Morning That If McKeesport People Do Not Take Over Team This Town Will Have a Chance To Get It.

United Press Telegram.

Connellville has the call for the McKeesport franchise in the Ohio & Pennsylvania baseball league. That was the assurance received this morning by A. A. Straub of the Smith House and the patron of the game in this town. The franchise has been closely identified with the game here and it was largely due to his personal efforts the town had baseball the last season of the Pennsylvania and West Virginia League.

Whether the franchise will leave McKeesport remains to be seen. The present owners intend to sell. Of that they are determined. They will, however, give the citizens of McKeesport the first chance to buy them out. If this fails, they will give the next chance to some outsider who want to keep the team in the Tube City. If neither of these two propositions bring a purchaser, the franchise goes on the open market and Connellville is promised the first opportunity.

Mr. Straub is well acquainted with the McKeesport owners and is also well known about the O. & P. circuit. He stands well and if Connellville has the opportunity to take over the McKeesport team, Straub can swing the deal if the town wants organized baseball next year.

The McKeesport owners stated they would like to see Connellville get the team. If McKeesport loses it, being the only city in this part of Western Pennsylvania outside of Pittsburgh and McKeesport, the town has acquired a prestige it never before enjoyed. It is known throughout Western Pennsylvania as one of the best towns for sports and the Cokers would be welcome in the O. & P.

PLUMBING CONTRACT

Completed by Trough Plumbing Company for Connellville.

The Trough Plumbing Company is just completing the plumbing that was done on the new stockyards at Greene Junction for the Connellville Stock and Saddle Company. This was a big contract. It being necessary to run a water line into each of the 28 pens. In the three thousand feet of water line, there were about 1,500 feet of one inch line and about 1,500 feet of one and a half inch line.

The same company is also installing a plumbing line and low pressure boiler for the Tri-State Auto Company, a heating plant for J. D. Mulligan and the plumbing heating, gas work and gas service for the York National Bank.

THE INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK IS ENCOURAGING.

The announcement that steel, iron and coke orders aggregating $2,000,000 have been placed for the coming year is the first symptom of returning prosperity which the business world of the Connelville coke region has heard. It is all over now and everybody, including the town, will take a rest from politics and permit industry to resume.

The industrial advancement indicated in the above orders is doubtless based upon the encouragement contained in the nation's business progress and the confidence in the future of the Interstate Commerce Commission in its treatment of the railroad rate question.

Another feature of the situation which is full of hope for everybody in the announcement in the centers of civilization that commodity prices are declining. The decline has not reached its peak, but we will hope to see them soon. There is no reason why the prices of living should not undergo material reductions. The crops are abundant. If living continues higher, it will be due to the authorities to inquire concerning it somewhere else than in the manufacture of steel or iron or coke.

When there is a surplus of pig iron or coke, their prices tend to become there is an abundance to prevent it. Commodities are plenty. They should decline in price, unless they are supported by a combination banking on the people's hunger.

BRIMSTONE CORNER: ITS ORIGIN AND HISTORY.

Brimstone Corner has been discovered. It received its name from the fiery character of Tom Paine's Democratic speech delivered there three-quarters of a century ago. Brimstone Corner has retained the name ever since. It has also been the headquarters of Connelville's curious political throughout all these years, and in a measure continues to be. Brimstone Corner's political discussions and arguments have ranged from Presidential politics and National platforms to local appointments. There the fate of the nation has been settled and local political ambitions have been gratified or disappointed. The political history of Connelville clusters around Brimstone Corner.

All because of the famous character of the Democratic eloquence of a forebear of the living family, which has ever since been invariably hostile to Democracy.

HOW HAVE THE MIGHTY FALLEN!

The announcement that a Westmoreland jury has dared to convict James H. Smith of conspiracy in the crime of counting too many votes at a primary election is astounding.

It will be recalled that certain of the insurgent-minded newspapers have given the public to understand that Boss Penrose and Boss Gutzky had-towed to Sunny Jim's sunset recline whenever it was heard coming around the corner. That, in fact, James was the main guy, the loud snore, the big boss of Pennsylvania politics.

Yesterday, J. H. Smith might have stood against the State, now, none so poor as to do him reverence. The plan does seem for this Breckinridge plan politician who played with Legislatures as with games and was chief director of both the Democratic and Republican State Conventions. The mightiest and most hated of the Sons of Hell is fettered and helpless in the grasp of outraged justice.

How have the mighty fallen!

A contemporary reports quite a change of sentiment in South Connelville on the question of incorporation. Now that the court has granted it, everybody is for it. That's the way it was in Connelville after the vote on consolidation and that's the way city government. We do not believe the people of Connelville made any mistake in either case but we have given double the wisdom of the South Connelville incorporation.

Gold is reported to have been discovered in Fayette county. Gold discoveries have been made in Fayette county heretofore but they have hitherto taken the brick form.

The old papers of the Bristol Mount Pleasant bank proved to be not stuff.

McKeesport is chasing a real wolf and Greene county is hunting imaginary foxes.

Real estate is active in Dawson, chiefly because Dawson is a real live town.

The expressions of sympathy from the McCoy family are better late than never.

Fayette county is still infested with calumny. It is found in 15 pounds some Democratic weighing more, but lacking the votes of neither are overwhelming.

The only Greene county fox has been slain. It is no wonder the fox hunters failed to get a brush.

The American sailors are having French strapping as well as French leave.

T. H. has held his peace for the longest period in history.

The High Cost of Living is preparing to come down like Davy Crockett's coon, and, strangely enough, without the advice and consent of the Rubber Tariff.

The good of the whole community should be the aim of all good newspapers.

Connelville coke goes everywhere, including Pottsville.

Will Thanksgiving Find You
Still Undecided About a

New Coat or Suit?

It shouldn't. Buying should be done now while assortments are at the best. Every day sees the exit of some of the choicest but, of course, now ones are still arriving. Buy a garment that will give service and satisfaction. This you will be assured of by coming to this old reliable establishment where 'value' is paramount and where a reputation has long been established for handling only the best. Every one has been given in selecting our lines and the pieces are just as big and attractive as the garments themselves.

Women's Suits

Best way we know to develop these suits is to ask you to come and see them. Whether you buy here or elsewhere you owe it to your pocketbook to see these suits and learn the pieces. Plenty of suit bargains being offered you just now but look at the suits. Examine the material, the lining and finishing and the way they are made and just how they fit. Notice how the coat sets around the collar and over the shoulder. These are tests that you should apply to your suit when you buy. We believe that our years of experience in the suit business has given us some advantages in the buying end of this business and we know that we are in a position to sell you suits at a narrow margin of profit than other stores in this vicinity. Another thing we know is that our alteration department is in charge of a person competent to make alterations. We believe that if you have a suit want and are interested in having good material—a stylish and well fitting garment and a saving of from $5 to $8 on your suit purchases that we ought to sell you your suits. See the garments, learn the prices and buy or not as your pocketbook tells you.

Women's Coats

Lots of talk here about higher prices, how everything costs so much more than in years past, but here is something to think about. Twenty years ago when plush coats were the one good garment, we made a specialty of a 42 inch plush coat at $40. Today plushes are being shown in all up-to-date stores. We have one 50 inches long, a better plush, if possible, better lining and lots more style and the price is $30. Ask some one who was fortunate enough to have owned one of these coats in former years if they ever succeeded in wearing it out. Odds are here made of cheviot, broadcloth, serges and fancy mixtures and priced from $12 up to $30.

Misses' Coats

For school or dress our showing of these is unusually large. Broadcloths, storm serges, diagonals, home spun and caracul are shown in all sizes and trimmed with velvets, Persian lamb, braid or button effects, or made plain. Sizes are from 11 to 18 years.

Children's Coats

In sizes from 6 to 14 years. Gray, tan, red, blue, navy, black and mixtures are shown in twilled chevrons, caracul and coutings, self-trimmed or with buttons and braids and Persian lamb, silk or velvet collars. We just received a good shipment of these making the assortment large.

Low Prices

VERSUS

"I never had a customer who didn't want higher priced furniture than she could afford," said a prominent merchant the other day.

Do you know why this is?

Nearly all the cheap furniture you see in stores is out of harmony with even moderate good taste.

Factories put less attention on their cheaper designs, and buyers as a rule select from these, with but little care.

But we have given this end of our business unusual attention.

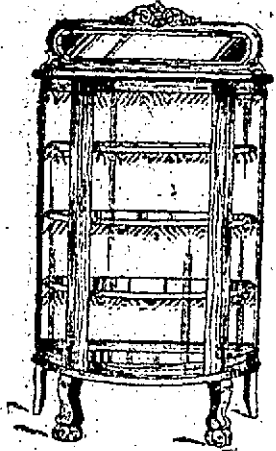

Sometimes we have picked just one single, low-priced design that was good, from a whole factory output.

You can get low-priced goods here that you will be proud to own.

USUALLY When the Design of a Table Suits Your Taste, the Price Does Not.

In the Tables which we have unpacked today, the designs are beautiful. No finer appearing Tables ever were sold in Connelville, and every Table is built as well as it looks. We selected the best Tables made by a number of factories, and we bought them at prices which will save you a lot of money if your dining room needs a Table now.

Extensive Line of China Closets in Genuine Quarter Sawed Oak.

Some plain and some carved—some in Golden Oak and some in Early English finish. Our China Closets are made to match any style of table. Those with the claw foot or those with the plain Colonial foot. Variety of patterns and with the immense assortment we have to show, you cannot help but be pleased.

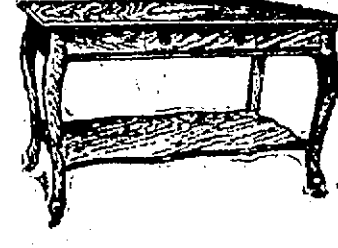

HOOSIER SPECIAL

HEALTHY PLANTS. Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebud which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth? A lot of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart. You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect. You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vasoline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out. Now's the time to destroy the germ and healthy hair is the sure result. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. Graham & Co., Special Agents.

A RECORD CROWD

Attended, Evangelistic Services in Scotlanda Tabernacle Last Night. SCOTSDALE, Nov. 10.—(Special.)—The largest crowd so far attended the evangelistic meeting at the tabernacle last evening. Several hundred were compelled to stand, a line extending the whole length of both outside aisles as well as a great mass of people crowding the space near the entrance. The meeting was not only unusually helpful and interesting but entertaining in the highest degree. Evangelist Davis called for any good reports that people had to give and the audience gave them by the score.

Mrs. Davis, wife of the evangelist, was introduced and the audience gave her a rousing Chautauqua salute. She responded with a speech that made a deep impression on the audience. Sunday at 2:30 P. M. Evangelist Davis will give his famous address to men only, "True Manhood and How to Obtain It." This has been pronounced by many who have heard it a better address than the address given to them several weeks ago.

Henry Kaister Better. The condition of Henry Kaister, who was injured severely by falling from a shed roof which he was repairing several weeks ago, is improving. He suffered very dangerous injuries, but is able to be out about his home some now. He is hoping to get into town soon.

Arrests Are None. The police force has had nothing to do in arresting drunk and disorderly persons for several weeks past. Since the evangelistic meetings began the police business has slimmered down to very low estate.

Rev. Wagner's Services. Rev. P. O. Wagner, the pastor, announces that there will be preaching services at Jacobus Creek Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services will be at Wesley Chapel at 10:30 in the morning. There will be revival services started at the Chapel next Monday evening and continuing every night of the week at 7:30.

Societies Were Entertained. The Women's Missionary societies of the various churches were entertained by the Women's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday afternoon and evening. There was a large representation present and an enjoyable time had.

Dr. N. E. Shiley arrived home from Philadelphia last night and resumed his work here today.

EASY TO LOSE THINGS. Every One Knows the Perversity of Inanimate Objects.

Who is there who has not at times noticed the almost devilish ingenuity inanimate things display in getting lost? You know just where you put the saw or the hatchet or the tack hammer but when you want them they are not there. You lay a paper in a particular place and when you want it, it has apparently gotten up and walked off of its own accord. The unfortunate, too, valuable things are just as likely to go astray as any other inanimate objects—a mighty good reason why you should collect all your valuable papers and place them in a Safe Deposit box in the strong vaults of the First National Bank of Connelville. There they will be absolutely secure—they cannot go astray—and only you, yourself, will have access to them. The cost is merely nominal.

RESULTS TELL.

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Connelville. Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a Connelville citizen.

Can be easily investigated. What better proof can be had? Mrs. Lawrence Francis, 411 Tenth street, Connelville, Pa., says: Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of a severe attack of kidney trouble about five years ago and I have had no recurrence of it. This remedy has also been used by other members of our family with the most satisfactory results. It never fails to bring prompt relief from backache and kidney disorders. I value Doan's Kidney Pills highly and am glad to recommend them to other persons who may be suffering with any symptoms of kidney trouble." Statement given Oct. 7, 1910.

On Oct. 12, 1909, Mrs. Francis was again interviewed and added the following to her former statement: "My former statement still holds good. The relief I obtained from kidney trouble through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills has been permanent."

Probably the most distinguished signer of the petition was none other than "Tariff Andy" Stewart, "Tariff Andy" was an Englishman by birth. He started out as a lawyer, but politics proved more alluring. For years he represented this district in Congress and was for years one of the greatest tariff opponents in the country. His land holdings were large. His land was in the State of Maryland and in the State of Virginia. Thomas Lewis was not so well known here and is but little remembered even by the old timers. He was a lawyer of note, his ability as a lawyer was well known and he was on the bench in Allegheny county.

Isaac Monson was also a famous man in those days. He owned and lived on the Mt. Braddock farm. He though he never displayed any particular activity in public life. He was a blacksmith by trade, and probably left his forge to sign Mr. Crawford's petition. He married a daughter of John Marshall.

John Marshall was not so well known around here. He possessed rather an easygoing nickname of "Doc". John's father resided in the Kentucky Coal field. He came from Dunbar town, which David Morland belonged to. Some time ago, he lived on and owned the present Charles town place.

George Craig was a school teacher. He worked for his father, too. He and M. L. Lytle is a sister of Geo. Craig's.

Samuel Work was a Dunbar township member of the Work family.

MISS SELINA LUE

and the Soap-box Babies

by MARIE THOMPSON DAVIES

Illustrations by Magnus G. Kettner

COPYRIGHT 1908, THE DOBBS-MERRILL COMPANY

Just at that moment Miss Cynthia came down the hill with her hair blowing in her hand and her curls a-tumble in the breeze. She paused and took in the mad and dandified crew of youngsters, with round eyes and wide-open mouths, and a picture of wholesale catastrophe they presented! Bessie sat on the top step, tied neatly around his head was a huge white bandage, from which his frocked face peered with swollen solemnity. Ethel Maud dropped on the corner of the step below and nursed a red and enlarged little wing that had been an ear, when last Miss Cynthia had barked it off. Lillian Kinney choked back sobs with an abnormality that thumb which she kept in her mouth, seemingly deriving comfort therefrom. Around one ankle was tied a pink gingham rag, which set off the pink bit that swathed one of Ethel Maud's brown little feet. Several thin knees had suspiciously doubled on their mates in matter of size. The rest of the congregation had suffered with more or less pungency. And an aroma of mingled tears and camphor rose from the steps.

"Why—why?" gasped Miss Cynthia, "was there a cyclone?"

"Oh, no," answered Miss Selina Lue cheerfully. "Just a little yellow-jacket nest that made a mistake to get mad at the children. They have most forgot all about it, for we were just about to make a whole water bucket full of lemonade. Nice day, isn't it for drinking such a lemonade?" Miss Selina Lue bestowed a significant glance on Miss Cynthia, as she spoke, which was very enlightening as to her rational method of treating the hornet cyclone. Miss Cynthia hastened to lend the weight of her mental influence to that of her friend, for she saw that her conversation had started a faint echo of rage.

"You indeed it is," she affirmed enthusiastically. "I feel as if I could drink several glasses myself. Somebody must draw the water for it right from the well."

"Yes, Bessie, can do that—while you and Ethel Maud and Lillian roll the lemons. There are the glasses to hand up, and everybody must get ready to help squeeze."

And for at least a half hour the front of the group, grouped with cheerful activity, if sharp little pains occasionally obstructed themselves, they found no encouragement from the busy drink makers, who supposed and assured and stopped and drank to their hearts' content. After they had their selves consumed the third concoction from the yellow rinds, they converted the idea of adding sugar and water still again and carrying the bucket down for the refreshment of Mr. Lue's who was a dear friend, to be remembered at what they considered an early stage of the lemonade game. "Lands alive!" said Miss Selina Lue as she sank on the top step and watched the last scampering pair of bare feet and fluttering rags disappear down the hill. "That's almost the worst ruckus we ever had on the bluff!" It was afraid they would all cry themselves sick before I could get their thoughts switched.

"Yes," answered Miss Cynthia as she seated herself beside Miss Selina Lue, exhausted and panting with the efforts she had made in their behalf. "It was pretty bad, and I was out of the direct path of the hurricane. How did you weather the full force?"

"Well, you know," answered Miss Selina Lue. "I've got 'em trained since I always did believe that courage is just to keep going and fight the pain. I don't hold with making light of suffering, but if distractions will help to ease along I for one am a bucket of lemonade."

"Lots of people in the world are agreeing with you on that line, Miss Selina Lue," answered Miss Cynthia as she laughed up into the kind eyes above her.

"Course common sense makes people think alike from Tennessee to Vericho, but ain't it funny how little of it is let loose all along the road! I wished we could have more of it in that mothers' meeting we had this morning, which is the cause of all this cyclone trouble, along of letting the children get away and into a mess of hornets while we talked about how to raise 'em."

"That's Almost the Worst Ruckus We Ever Had on the Bluff!"

"A mothers' meeting?" questioned

Miss Cynthia in astonishment.

"Oh, she didn't mean any real harm. She was sent out by some kinder foolish 'Woman's Union. She came into the grocery about nine o'clock this morning. I got a chair quick for her to put and rest in from the hill-climb. She looked kinder feeble and pinched, but my! she had fire in her eyes and she hot up when she talked."

"Did she come up for—missionary purposes?" demanded Miss Cynthia indignantly.

"Oh, yes, I reckon that is the way she put it to herself. And it was kind of her, but it did set back the work, as this is wash day. Miss Dobbs was glad enough to leave her tubs and come over to Miss Peters's and set and listen 'till of rubbing, but Miss Kinney was as put out as could be."

"And what did she have to impart to you about child culture?" Miss Cynthia again demanded.

"Oh, they was all good enough little receipts that most women what has owned a baby a week finds out for herself; but I was glad to see them took notice of and write up in fine talk in a book, 'cause how do we know that some woman, some day, might not need 'em? I was glad to have Mary Ellen hear her tell over a few things I have said to her time and time again."

"Well it makes me indignant to think of her—"

"But wait until I tell you about the husband experience she began on. The way she talked sounded kinder like training a lion or tiger by a kindness method. I seen Miss Kinney begin to swell and I got right uneasy. You've saw Miss Kinney when her temper has riz. She stood up and shorter shot that left eye of hers, and naked in a pleasant voice."

"Did I understand that you was Miss Bumpus or Mistress Bumpus, ma'am?"

"I am Miss Bumpus," answered the lady, with vinegar and persimmons mixed in her voice.

"Well, said Miss Kinney, 'then I excuse your remarks. Child, some woman have been joking with you about her men-folks. You wasn't talking about no United States bus band at all; it must a been some Chinese man your friend was complaining over. I was surprised how mild and patient Miss Kinney was handling her remarks."

"When women are content to sit with folded hands and let—"

The lady got so far, but Miss Kinney interrupted her in a very unpolite way. "Set with folded hands," she kinder repeated dazed like. "Why, I make mine do the work of four any day, and if Mr. Kinney was to come home and see me setting cross-handed—"

But here the ruckus began and I heard it coming down the street like a split. Ethel Maud was in the lead, but the others was close behind, and the yelling was like what you call it a cyclone."

"Oh how delicious!" gasped Miss Cynthia as she snook with laughter at the picture. "What did Miss Bumpus do?"

"Honey, I don't know. I didn't have time to see. Miss Peters says she didn't wait for the ten-fifty car, but took to the hill. This is the first breathing minute I have had since. And now I'm worrying 'cause she will think we haven't got a bit of man-ners."

"Why, you couldn't help the—cyclone?"

"Yes, I know, but you oughter be thankful for kindnesses done to you, whether they are cups that fit or not. Miss Kinney was tilted and—but it's easy for me to talk who ain't got no husband to bit and bridle like you recommended and—Lands alive! It is almost dinner-time and not a thing on the stove. For still, honey, while I bring the beans out here to string."

Miss Cynthia sat for a few minutes in smiling silence and then there floated down from the bars a tender, whistled rendition of an Alma aria. Miss Cynthia stiffened, rose, and called a hasty good-by to Miss Selina Lue, who came to the door to look up the street after her.

"I do wonder why she had to go so suddenlike," she said to herself as she turned again toward the kitchen. Just then Mr. Alvin entered the back door with Carrots wriggling in his hands. He was a whimpering bunch of the exact hue of that part of the mother earth enclosed in the garden fence.

"Lands alive, Mr. Alvin, did Carrots turn over his box at last?" exclaimed Miss Selina Lue as she plucked him by the neck of his apron and set him down by the sink.

"He was squirming over the geography of the garden paths when I found him," answered Mr. Alvin with a laugh. "Carrots gave me one sleepy little purr and rolled over on the floor for a nap."

"Well, such a time as we have been having!" remarked Miss Selina Lue as Mr. Alvin followed her to the front of the grocery and they both seated themselves in reach of the river breeze. She began to snap the beans busily.

"I heard about it," answered Mr. Alvin, "and I had a drink of lemonade."

"That bucket saved a many of yells, and soothed a heap of pain," answered Miss Selina Lue with a laugh. "But,

dear me, I wonder if Miss Cynthia could have been stung by one of them yellow-jackets as a reason for leaving so sudden! I saw one crawling around the steps a little while ago. I've just thought of it." Miss Selina Lue's hands were idle from anxiety as she peered up the hill with distress in her usually serene eyes.

"No," said Mr. Alvin, "I don't think it was a yellow-jacket, that caused her flight. It might have been a gray serge," he added under his breath.

"Well, I feel too uneasy to rest calm until I find out," said Miss Selina Lue. "You, Bessie, come here a minute! I want you." And she halted the wounded hero as he struggled up the road with the empty bucket.

"You ought to teach her to neglect pain as you do the kiddies," was Mr. Alvin's vindictive remark, which failed to lodge in Miss Selina Lue's kind mind; but he seemed glad when Bessie enthusiastically consented to run up to the hill mansion to take a bottle of camphor and find out about the possible accident. He went so far as to hand him a dime, with the on-trontry that he hurry and relieve the anxiety of—Miss Selina Lue. He even stood and watched impatiently the rag-battered head of the messenger, which seemed to glow with joy as he like a big white snail.

"I know I'm foolish," said Miss Selina Lue as she began on the beans again. "I don't hold with thinking up bad happenings onto people, for sometime it might kinder hit 'em on some blind side we don't know about and take, but that child is just the kernel of my heart. She is one of the whigs of me. Miss Cynthia is, since I come to the bluff."

"Why, I thought you had always been—the bluff," Miss Selina Lue, said Mr. Alvin, anxious to turn her thoughts from her favorite topic of conversation. He bore no malice, but a snub is likely to bring return ripples of resentment; and that wretched mischievous smile—his ears began to burn from reflex action.

"Oh, no, indeed, I've only been here a few years," answered Miss Selina Lue, and her eyes rested on the faded hills across the river. "Just eight years and two months, for Ethel Maud was borned the night after I got here."

"How on earth did they get along without you before you came?" asked Mr. Alvin with sincerity in his tone.

"Well, they wasn't so many babies on the bluff then—just Bessie though he was a mighty poor specimen when I took a hand with him. They've kept a coming along in bunches ever since, bless 'em!"

"How did you happen to come—to them?" asked Mr. Alvin gently, for he saw that Miss Selina Lue's mind was back in the past.

"Yes," she answered softly. "It do look like the little unknowns, those called me—no a sailing longshore on a side of one of the bluffs over in Warren county. I didn't have nothing but some land, an empty home—and a full graveyard over by the garden wall. It was just about sundown one day and I was a driving round the graves—the wild violets was a blooming and the corn was in the field—when I looked up and seen the light of glory on the hills. And somehow, I don't know, but all of a sudden, the grieving love in me turned into love of God that He just poured down into my heart, and I was so filled with it that it hurt me not to be a sinner."

"Some of it out to other folks. The next day I sold the land and home to Cousin Dave Elkins and hitched up and started down to where I could find folks to need me."

"I'm surprised you got this far," said Mr. Alvin, his voice a bit husky as he looked into Miss Selina Lue's face of beautiful tenderness.

"Well, it was with a many a sipp," she answered as her face broke up into a shower of smiles. "I took two full weeks to make the seventy miles, and if ever a woman found things a waiting to be did it was me as I come along the road. Miss Selina Lue laughed reminiscently.

"Tell me about it, please do," begged Mr. Alvin like a small boy wiggling for an adventure tale.

"Well, let me see! I was all hitched and ready to start by sun-up. I had been real stern with myself about leaving 'most everything behind me packed up in a corner of the garret, but I never had any mind not to drive Charley's mother down before me, 'cause no matter where a body lands, a cow is a convenience to have along."

Mr. Alvin laughed and moved a step nearer. How far did you get that first day?" he inquired.

"Oh only as far as Cousin Patty Sudberry's. They had word and was a looking for me. I heard the children barking like dogs when I turned in the gate. It was the worst crowd of whooping coughers I have ever saw. It was a mercy I got there when I did for it took me three days' doing with onion syrup and brown sugar, which she had never heard on, to get 'em where they could pull through. I left 'em squeaky, but on the road to mend I was so glad I found a job of helping that I could waste through so well."

"If you couldn't wade through people's troubles, Miss Selina Lue, you would be sure to strike out and swim," said Mr. Alvin as he snugged a bean cross the step.

"Well, I found a trouble down the road to Miss Denon Jennings that come mighty nigh going over my head, and I had to hold on tight to the hand of God and try and pull against the tide for them and me, too. It was a baby's funeral—she had six living boys and just this one little woman child. Seemed like I sowed stitches in my own soul as I mended the little white shroud." Miss Selina Lue's voice quivered.

"But I'm glad you were there to—make it," snickered Mr. Alvin.

PROF. JACQUES' RIDE

In New Automobile on West Asphalt Streets Cincinnati.

Prof. J. Jacques, the dancing teacher had a very narrow escape from serious injury a few days ago and while in town Thursday to conduct his weekly dance he related his experience.

The professor recently acquired the automobile craze and invested a goodly sum in one of the gasoline wagons, a Buick. After several weeks with the assistance of an expert, he had learned to drive the car like a master. During some of his trips he has visited Connelville with the machine, making the run from his home in Pittsburg.

He never had he been on a trip with it on a rainy day. As fate ruled he decided to take a spin on last Friday and as the asphalt streets were covered with slush he was advised to use caution on the wheels. He only replied to Jacques, "I won't be gone long, so I'll hurry and need them," and out the door went the car.

Onlywood he reached and successfully. It was not until he turned left that he decided to put on a little speed and make a graceful turn-around a milk wagon before a coming street car blocked his way.

Anybody as the machine began to skid with such speed that one of the rear wheels was smashed when it struck the car tracks. The motorist of the oncoming car saw the accident and put on the brakes, but could not stop in time to avoid hitting the automobile in which the driver was still seated.

The damage was added to that already done and the machine looked a total wreck. Prof. Jacques hurried into the Hotel Seeleny, the accident happening on Forbes street near the building and telephone for assistance. Then he went home.

The bill for repairs has not been submitted yet.

PARRY-CUNNINGHAM

Wedding at Home of Bride at Alverton Thursday.

The celebration of a happy romance in solemn marriage was the occasion for a company of friends and relatives who gathered Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Parry, Alverton, Pa.

At high noon the bridal party held in the parlor where Rev. William Harris Guster performed the ceremony which made Charles W. Cunningham and Miss Anna Laura Parry man and wife. Following the religious service, the bride and groom and put on the breakfast table and the dining room where a dainty luncheon was served and where the colorful bride cake was cut and tasted by her many friends.

Among those who were present were William G. Cunningham, father of the groom, and Miss Stella Cunningham, the only sister of the groom both of 3500 Grand, Dr. and Mrs. George J. McNeill of Alverton, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Quaker of Hraddeck, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. William Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Shields, Mrs. Sanny Vestick, Jess Jones, Miss Emma Dodson and Charles Taylor, Mrs. William Harris Guster, and Miss Glens Gentry who played the wedding march.

The bride was beautifully dressed and was accompanied to the bridal altar by her sister Miss Daisy and her brother Raymond. The home was nicely decorated with appropriate flowers and everything was done on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Parry to make the affair as pleasant as was solemn. The couple were welcomed by numerous and helpful and showed much nice discrimination on the part of the guests.

Amid a shower of rice and the company of some of the guests the bride and groom left on the 3 o'clock car for an extended wedding trip. The Alverton unsmilers are on the lookout for their return when an old-fashioned wedding will be given them.

Our Special Holiday Offer

Who We Are We are Importers and Distributors of high-grade European and American Wines and Whiskies. The Sweden-American Co. is Independent of any Trust.

Why We Make These Offers No other importers can make such splendid, generous offers. The trusts can not compel us to sell at their prices. We buy in large quantities. In dealing with us, you do not pay profits to middlemen. We sell first-class goods at less than half what you pay elsewhere. We have determined to introduce our products to the American public, and are willing to give you the benefit of our foresight and advertising methods. We simply want to prove the worth of our goods and to make a steady customer of you. Your trial order will do more to prove the value of our goods than all the advertising or letter writing we could do.

Reliability As to our reliability, go to your banker, and have him look us up in Dun or Bradstreet Mercantile Agencies, and he will tell you of our high standing, or have your Express Agent write any Express Agent in Cincinnati, and see how well we stand. You can be assured that we will do exactly as we say, and that you will receive the best of treatment at our hands.

Testimonials Below we reproduce testimonials from a few of our steady customers. We have hundreds more, but selected these because they were from men who are known all over this country. Our goods please them. Don't you think they are worth a trial by you?

Chas. Gordon, the "German Senator," the noted manager who has made the world laugh, says: "I have never had better liquor or at better prices. I carry them everywhere with me."

Hobby North, one of the stars of the "Police of 1910," says: "I don't believe I ever had such good whiskies as your Private Stock. Can you sell it for the price?"

Al. If Woods, one of America's most famous theatrical managers, says: "Enter my standing order for one gallon of whisky and one of Swedish Punch each month. I propose to be a steady customer."

You will note that we have listed a number of standard wines and liquors in our order blank. They are, one and all, liquors that are fit to grace the sideboard of any home in America. We want to call your special attention of our famous "SWEDISH PUNCH." This is one of the best holiday liquors that has appeared in years. It is made from a recipe that has been handed down from generation to generation by the Royal Family of Sweden, and is now, for the first time, put upon the American market. Too much can not be said for it.

2 Quarts of any goods in the assortment mentioned by express $1.85 in order blank, shipped, all charges paid,

4 Quarts of any goods in the assortment mentioned by express $2.90 in order blank, shipped, all charges paid,

There was a massacre on the West Side last evening when Billy Kummer's Cokers got their knives after Joe Fogarty's aggregation of clementine chasers and scalped them to the tune of 45 to 31. And to add to the festivity of the occasion McKeesport was at the identical time putting the finishing touches on an artistic job of lights decorations by trimming. Uniontown to the tune of 45 to 31. The result is that even should the Cokers lose at Uniontown—which is not conceded by a single faithful fan—the Kinkadee brigade will still be trailing behind the brilliant orange jerseys of the local quail.

But that is for the future—here's the history of a glorious past: Fogarty's men looked like a pretty husky bunch on Tuesday night. They were on the floor to be admired by the 700 or more fans gathered about the cage. They did some fine shooting in practice. In the game it was different. The Cokers were the only logical who really caught the basket correctly, and Kummer could not do all the work. His field shots and Fogarty's fouls kept the Joyless Johnnies in the game.

For the Cokers it was all Harry Kummer. Not that the four other Cokers didn't put up a swell game, but it happened to be Harry's turn to do the fantastic stunts. Harry did "em" 172 shot six baskets in all and five of them were the greatest kind of shots. They were fancy, with all the frills imaginable. Captain Billy Kummer wasn't at his best from the foul line, but he potted up a collection of field goals that was a change. In fact, Billy Kummer had four nice shots into the net, and Kummer made two or three after Doherty had missed them by a hair. Dark and Doyle did their best, but the breakers didn't come their way.

The floor was slippery and the Cokers suffered the worst by it. Dark and Kummer were turned into moss during both halves and with a minutes yet to go they got an awful break. They were stuck to it and finished in great form.

Keeping up the record that has been set in every game here so far, Kummer made the first score of the game, by throwing a foul. The foul was for a second or two later Fogarty dumped the ball through the ring for a tally. Then Kummer shot another one, giving the Cokers a lead which Harry Kummer kept by a dazzling basket. Then Kummer caged one and Doherty put two through the circle, one of them a pipkin. Fogarty shot a foul and then Kummer tossed one from the foul. This gave the Cokers 10 to 5, which looked mighty good, but the Joyless Jaws suddenly began running up scores. Kummer's field goal made it 10 to 6, a foul made it 10 to 7, and Harry Kummer shot a 10 to 8. Fogarty shot a foul and the score came to 10 to 9, which looked mighty good, but the Joyless Jaws suddenly began running up scores. Kummer's field goal made it 10 to 6, a foul made it 10 to 7, and Harry Kummer shot a 10 to 8. Fogarty shot a foul and the score came to 10 to 9, which looked mighty good, but the Joyless Jaws suddenly began running up scores.

It was at this point that Harry Kummer made his first basket, tossing the ball into the ring from about the center of the floor. The crowd went wild. Kummer made the next shot and tied the score. At this point the Cokers took a two minute rest, organizing their offense. There was a minutes still to play. When the whistle blew, Kummer rushed toward the floor, took the ball from Johnstown and dropped it through the net. Johnstown claimed a foul because Kummer climbed up the side of the cage and before Fogarty properly sustained the kick, Fogarty threw the foul amid the jeers of the spectators. The Cokers took the ball and the foul and tied it towards their goal. Doherty made a fine attempt to ease the sphere and missed by a hair. Kummer, under the basket, grabbed the ball and dropped it in for the 16th score. He duplicated the feat an instant later and then Kummer and Newman did the same. There was but 1 seconds left to play when Johnstown asked for time. When play was resumed Kummer got the ball long enough to make a try for goal and miss. The game came with the teams even—18 to 18.

Fogarty started the second half with a foul and Kummer followed not long after. Then the Cokers began running up the tally. Doherty made a great loss for the 21st score, Kummer got a 23 on an easy shot and No. 25 on a long toss from a bad angle. He also got No. 27, but before he got his third one in succession Fogarty threw a foul, sent Newman to the sidelines and brought Fox in, and the newsmen caged the first ball that came his way. Johnstown was out of the running, however, as the Cokers had more than the Cokers up to 29 and a great loss by Kummer made it 31. After a pair of fouls, one by each captain, Dark got a team tumble and time was taken out. At this point Kummer succeeded Kummer at center for the Johnnies. Eight minutes were left to play with the Cokers leading, 32 to 25. When play was resumed Doyle got the top of Mulliner and Doherty shot a pretty goal from the center of the floor. The Cokers then began playing for time and shot the ball about the cage until Kummer got an opening to

THE STAGE AND THE PLAYERS.

"THE MISSOURI GIRL"

"I'VE BEEN
DRESSIN' UP
MA!"

"The Missouri Girl" in the last dozen years "The Missouri Girl" has been seen in this city several times and the visit again this season which is announced for Thanksgiving Day at the Soloson will be hailed with delight by the numerous theatergoers who have so long contended that this attraction is the greatest of all comedies and that "Zeeke" and "Daisy" the funniest of all stage characters.

The company this season is said to be even stronger than when the play was last seen here, and the unusual demand for seats so far in advance augurs well for a capacity business.

The prices are in accordance with the time and so reasonable that everyone can afford a brief holiday with "Zeeke" and "Daisy."

"The Girl From Home," "The Girl From Home," described as a play of heart throbs and laughs; will be the attraction at the Soloson theatre Wednesday night, Nov. 23. Miss Mary Green, who is well and favorably known to the theatergoers of this city, will appear in the title role, ably assisted by a company of clever players.

LITTLE DAUGHTER HAD SCALP HUMOR

Itched So that She Scratched Until Blood Came. Hair Fell Out. Scalp had Unpleasant Odor. Used Cuticure Soap and Ointment Four Weeks. Scalp Perfectly Clear.

Hair Began to Grow Again and Now Has Beautiful, Long Hair.

"When my little daughter was about five years old, she was taken with the measles. A few weeks after she was gone, she began to have a severe scalp humor. It itched so that she would scratch the whole day, until the blood came. We had a doctor and tried a good many other remedies, but nothing helped. Her hair all fell out and the scalp itself had an unpleasant odor. After she had tried all the other remedies, my wife told me to try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We bought one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment. We used the Cuticura Remedies according to directions and in about three or four weeks her scalp was perfectly clear of the terrible humor. Her hair began to grow again and now she has beautiful, long hair. Since that time I have recommended the Cuticura Remedies to other people and they also had success. Chas. Schaeffer, Anacapa, Iowa, Nov. 8, 1909."

COKERS SHOW UP WELL IN AVERAGES.

Team Stands Third in Points
Scored and Players
Do Well.

DOHERTY LEADS THE GUARDS

His Goal Shooting Was a Feature of the Season's First Week—Kummer in the Van Among the Forwards,
Being Led Only by Adams.

According to the depth of the McKeesport Daily News, the Cokers are showing up fine in the league averages. The team ranked third in total points scored, which isn't bad, while Captain Billy Kummer is fourth man for individual honors. Only Adams has scored more field goals than the Coker captain.

Doherty leads the guards in goals scored. The other Coker players all show up well. Uniontown, in team scoring, led Connelville by 10 points but had played one more game. Here are the figures:

Southside	13	10	45	68
Johnstown	13	10	45	68

Kummer's foul shooting wasn't up to par but he made this up in the field. In the first half he threw two fouls and then missed four in a row. Beggs missed his only try. In the second half Kummer caged five of eight.

The Cokers got some awful bumps on the slippery floor. They seemed to face worse than Johnstown.

Fox started into the game like a winner. He got the tap the first few times and made things look interesting.

Neither Keenan nor Mulliner had a thing on Doyle when it came to jumping the center. The smiling Celt easily held his own.

Both teams had time taken out three times during the game. The referee blew it out once when Kummer kicked on a foul called.

Next Tuesday the McKeesport Champions make their first appearance here. They are promised a warm reception.

It would be just like Homestead to break its losing streak at Johnstown's expense.

The Cokers went through the week with three victories and no defeats. Since is no kick coming on that record.

The game became atrocious towards the last but there was no evidence of it being on either side. The Johnstown players made a splendid impression with the fans here.

Oh, what a wall went up from Uniontown when they heard last night's score. The awful chorus was audible 12 miles away.

Two special cars will shortly hold the crowd of fans who will travel to Uniontown Monday night for the game there. The Cokers will go loaded for big game. If there is any rivalry between two towns in the league that of Connelville and Uniontown it hasn't developed yet.

Next to Uniontown, Johnstown will probably prove the best drawing card here. The McKeesport Champions are sure to pull strong, but it is a question whether the Jaws will not have the edge on the Tubers as a financial proposition here.

Pittsburg Company Chartered.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—With chief works in Fayette county, West Virginia, and with its principal offices in Pittsburg, the Reiter Coal & Coke Company was chartered here this week. The company has a capital stock of $50,000, and the incorporators are W. W. Keefe, H. H. Patterson, H. W. McMaster, W. M. Henderson and George W. Thielen of Pittsburg.

Little Bald Spot.

Men Be Sensible, Don't Let it
Grow More Conspicuous.

If you are beginning to worry about that spot right on the top of your head, where the hair is thin or has disappeared entirely.

Don't worry any longer.

Go to A. A. Clark at once and get a 50 cent bottle of Parisian Sage.

If that won't check the falling hair, and cause new hair to grow; nothing on this earth will.

Dandruff causes hair to fall and baldness; dandruff germs cause dandruff.

Parisian Sage kills the germs, eradicates dandruff; stops falling hair and itching scalp, or money back at A. A. Clark.

It will cause the hair to grow, if the hair root is not dead.

It causes the hair to grow thicker, more luxuriant, and puts so much new life into it that it grows lustrous and beautiful.

The girl with the auburn hair on every package. 50 cents at A. A. Clark and druggists everywhere. Mail orders filled by American Makers, The Groux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

HE SAVED ME FROM AN OPERATION.

This is the Verdict of Scores of People. Yes and Thus-Saved Many a Precious Life.
